Dear Mr. Knauft:

Thank you for your follow-up letter inviting Senator Baker to address the World Affairs Council of Orange County.

I'm sorry this must be a disappointing response, but Mr. Baker's hectic schedule will prevent him from being with you in the near future. If an unexpected opening should arise while he is in California, however, I will be sure to get in touch with you.

With Senator Baker's best wishes,

Dear Reverend Swaggart:

Thank you for your letter requesting a Presidential executive order banning the sale of pornography on all military installations and ships. I apologize for my delay in responding.

I appreciate having the benefit of your views and I want you to know that the Department of Justice must address the legal and constitutional issues raised by such an executive order prior to consideration by the White House domestic policy staff. Accordingly, we have formally requested a comprehensive legal opinion from the Office of Legal Counsel.

As you may know, the Administration is working on a bill which would significantly enhance our efforts to combat child pornography and obscenity. I believe you will find this bill responsive to some of your concerns.

Thank you again for your thoughts on this important matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Pratt:

Thank you for your strong words of support for Strategic Defense Initiative (SDI) funding and deployment.

We are making great progress in the program. This Administration is doing all in its power to continue on the course the President has set for a vigorous, balanced SDI research program leading to an informed decision on deployment.

Through the efforts of concerned citizens such as you, we will be successful in maintaining the support of the American people and in convincing the Congress to provide full funding for this important program.

Dear Ms. Leake:

Thank you for your efforts on behalf of Mrs. Jackie Whaley and her son, Steven. President Reagan shares my appreciation of the extra efforts you and Mrs. Teague have taken to ensure that Medicare coverage decisions about the home health services which Steven Whaley receives are correct.

I have taken the liberty of referring your letter to Dr. William L. Roper for appropriate action. Dr. Roper is the Administrator of the Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA), the agency which administers both the Medicare and Medicaid programs. It is my hope that this matter will soon be resolved and that Mrs. Whaley obtains all the home health care Medicare benefits for which her son is eligible.

Dear Mr. Green:

This is in response to your message concerning the recent suspension of Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) payments.

CCC program payments were temporarily suspended on May 1 because CCC had nearly depleted its $25 billion in borrowing authority. The CCC supplemental funding request, which will provide sufficient funding to allow the Corporation to resume all payments, was signed by the President on July 11 and payments were resumed on July 13.

We regret any financial hardship the CCC payment suspension may have caused and hope that legislative proposals submitted with the President's Fiscal Year 1988 budget request will help avoid similar payment interruptions in the future.

Dear Messrs. Hewett:

Thank you for your letter of May 26 concerning the potential for exporting Australian table grapes to the United States and the development of a regional food terminal in Mildura. I am sorry for the delay in responding.

We certainly understand your interest in pursuing these ventures. However, U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) personnel have recently advised the Australian Government that more specific identification of Australian grape pests is required before they can consider allowing Australian table grapes to enter the United States. We understand that you intend to pursue this matter with Australian officials. After the necessary data is received, USDA officials will be pleased to discuss with their Australian counterparts the possibility of changing the entry status of Australian grapes.

While the U.S. Government is unable to provide resources for the development of a regional food terminal in Australia, members of the private sector in this country may be interested in investing in your project. Mr. Douglas Freeman, Acting Director of the Public Sector Relations Division (PSRD) in the USDA's Office of International Cooperation and Development (OICD), would be pleased to assist you in providing information to the U.S. private sector about this investment opportunity. He could also identify consultants who may be available to share their expertise in the establishment of such an enterprise. If you wish to discuss this matter with Mr. Freeman, his address is PSRD, OICD, USDA, McGregor Building, Room 344, Washington, D.C. 20250-4300. His telephone number is (202) 653-7873.
